

Coping With Loss in a Virtual Team

COVID-19 brings a grief experience that is new and complicated for many of us. Your virtual team members will likely experience sudden loss or change no differently to a team working closely in the same office. To support a virtual team through loss, managers will need to understand how to support and adjust their approach for a virtual or remote setting.

Delivery Methods: Online Webinar
Course Length: 60 minutes

In this webinar, managers will:

- Gain effective communication strategies to demonstrate compassion.
- Explore a four-step approach to helping team members cope with the loss of a member.
